LIVE ONLINE COURSE – 24 Monday evenings

Starting 2 November 2026

Law and Contract Management (NEC4)

LIVE ONLINE COURSE

Starting 2 November 2026

About the course

Designed to enhance your comprehension of contracts, this course will explore contractual conditions, their legal framework, and the management procedures essential for project completion. Aligned with the Institution of Civil Engineers (ICE) syllabus, this course will prepare you for the ICE Law and Contract Management examinations which will take place in June 2027. If you wish to take these exams, an extra fee will be applicable, payable directly to the ICE.

Who should attend?

This course is a must if you are looking to gain an in-depth understanding of Law and Contract Management (NEC4). This course is beneficial for you if your role within projects requires you to become more involved in contractual issues. This can be in various capacities ranging from civil engineers to consultants and project managers to authorities to name a few.

Topics include: (subject to change)

- Contract Strategy
- Contract Law
- Law of Tort
- Contract Management with NEC4
- Contract Documents
- Liability and Health and Safety
- CDM Regulations

Course fee

The fee is £990 (VAT exempt) per delegate and this includes the cost of tuition and supporting course materials.

Method of delivery

This course will be delivered entirely online through live interactive sessions, starting on Monday 2 November 2026 and running over 24 Monday evenings, concluding in June 2027.

Virtual attendance at each two-hour online session (6.30pm–8.30pm) is the delivery mode, giving ample opportunities to put your questions to our experts. Recordings from the sessions will not be provided.
